

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

VOLUME VIII.—NEW SERIES.

MILWAUKEE, WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1852.

WHOLE NUMBER 2318.

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel,

PUBLISHED EVERY MORNING, (MUNDAY EXCEPTED,) BY

RUFUS KING & CO.,

AT THE OFFICE,

NO. 205 & 207 EAST WATER STREET,

CENTER OF WISCONSIN STATE,

IN THE SECOND, THIRD, AND FOURTH STORIES

OF LINDGREN'S NEW BRICK BLOCK,

TRILLING,

BUSINESS CARDS.

WYMAN & SLEATOR,

ATTORNEYS & COUNSELORS AT LAW—OFFICES ONE STORE

NO. 200 EAST WATER STREET,

MILWAUKEE,
WISCONSIN.

J. N. HONESTEEL,

NOW IN FULL TIDE OF OPERATION!

CORNER OF EAST Water and Michigan Streets,

HENRY MILLER,

CONFECATIONER,

NO. 150, — MILWAUKEE,

EAST WATER STREET,

DEALER IN

FRESH LEMONS, ORANGES, RASPBERRIES,

NETS, CLOTH, PAPER, SARDINES, BOTTLED OYSTERS, &c.

CONFECTIONERY BY THE WHOLE,

CHOCOLATE, CANDY, CHOCOLATE WHIPS,

WISCONSIN,

COFFEE, TEA, & CANDY, &c.

COFFEE, TEA, &

VOLUME VIII.

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

NEW SERIES.

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.
WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 2, 1862
Rufus King, Wm. H. Watson & John S. Fillmore
PROPRIETORS.
UNDER THE NAME AND PERM OF
RUFUS KING & CO.

Our Rail Head to the Mississippi.

The progress of this work during the past year, and the certainty of its completion, within a reasonable period, to the Mississippi River, has given a fresh stimulus to the interest of the Western portion of the State in the location of the route, leading to the "Father of Waters," and the route, leading to the "Mississippi." The competition between the several routes which have been devised, is very great. It is becoming very difficult, and the papers which maintain their respective discussions of their comparative claims and advantages. The Crawford County Courier, recently started at Prairie du Chien, takes an active part in the controversy and advances cogent reasons in favor of locating the terminus at that rising town. We transfer them to our columns for the benefit and information of the public and the Rail Road Company:

Int. That is in the nearest point on the Mississippi that can be reached by railroad from Milwaukee.

2d. The route along the valley of the Wisconsin, is the best, most practicable and of less grade, than any that can be found—equal to any traversed by rail road in the United States.

3d. There is abundant timber and stone, convenient for rail roads.

The Prairie du Chien presents the finest location for a city, such as would be derived from the terrains, of any power on the river, from the prairie, or by its direction. The water is clear, two miles wide, bounded on two sides by large rivers of the West, with a good landing, sufficient for high or low water, for all kinds of boats.

4th. The hand can be purchased very cheap, regulation has not allowed it up.

5th. That it is the natural market for a large scope of country, the wealth of which must exceed here, and is more convenient of access than the White, Wide World."

Int. The donation of Fort Crawford for a depot can be obtained, and this consideration, added at $100,000, we can well by subscription to the stock of the Rail Road Company.

MCDONALD AND CONNAUGHEY FOUND GUILTY ON MURDER.

The Jury, in the case of the State vs. Patrice McDonald and James Connaughey, indicted for the murder of John Gullen, came into Court last evening, after less than two hours' absence, with a verdict against both prisoners of "Guilt of Murder in the first degree." In the exercise of the discretion now allowed by the law of this State, the Jury also adjudged that the punishment for the crime should be death. The prisoners were both taken by surprise by the verdict, and Connaughey was at once, vehemently protesting his innocence. Mr. Gould, in turn, declared that he was as he knew Connaughey was innocent, but did not say much for himself. The prisoners were both remanded to jail, to await their sentence.

The New York Evening Post, in speaking of the pledges given by the various democratic candidates to veto any bill altering the Fugitive Law, says that, if any of them has done so, he has played the fool gratuitously. He has bound himself, at Mr. Scott's suggestion, by a most absurd promise, of utter contempt for any popular will, and making no allowance for any change of circumstances, or any future expression of opinion. He has, volunteered in a moment of folly, the whole system of the party, the whole cause, the whole people, for the sake of a personal apology of being dictated to by a few of the poorest popular men, and which will bitterly offend the mass of the democratic constituency.

On Saturday, May 27, we will publish in the New-York Tribune, the names of those who have signed, or are yet to sign, the petition to the Legislature, asking that the bill be referred to a Committee.

CHICAGO CONFERENCE COLLEGE.—Our readers will notice in our advertising columns to-morrow, the inducements held out to those who wish to gain a knowledge of the theory and practice of some important masters, by attending at an inauguration organized for the purpose. Mr. Bell, the Principal of the College, is spoken of as every way qualified to fit the first setler in this country.

Rolling Prairie was at our right, presenting a very fine appearance in the landscape. It is much occupied by farms; the soil being of the best quality. We were gratified to learn that the farmers are becoming every day more convinced of the importance of a judicious system of cultivation, by which their lands will be preserved in value rather than deteriorated. Our State and County agricultural societies will do much to bring about this desirable state of things. A judicious rotation of crops, a little attention to the nature of the soil, and the cultivation of the crop most suited to the soil, are objects worth considering, and should be attended to now before it is too late.

Correspondence of the Sentinel.
GLANCES AT THE INTERIOR.

User, "Kings, or Life among the Loops;" by Harriet Beecher Stowe. Published by Jones P. Jewett & Co., Boston: 2 vols.

We are indebted to Messrs. Arnold & Wilcox for a copy of this work, which is exciting more interest throughout the length and breadth of the American press. Its popularity is sufficiently evidenced by its vast circulation, thus early, the edition of which we have a copy, being marked as one of the fourth thousand.

The memory of the delineation of the character, language, customs, and manner of life of the Southern slave, is wonderful, and is only equalled by the fidelity of nature of the characters who are introduced as holding any relations towards that unfortunate race. If anything were wanting to prove the truth of this, it would be found in the fact that various southern papers have testified to it, reluctantly, but firmly.

The story is a simple one, and simply but eloquently told. A family, through changes of all sorts, is compelled to dispose of its few possessions, and leave at that time, as is the case of thousands of instances, been kindly treated, and well cared for. That person, however, is a horor to free-spirited, slave-dealer—speculator in the bodies and souls of men and women—is on hand to remove the necessities of the family by taking what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and inhumanity, ill-fated by what the law makes property. The negroes, small families are parted—a woman with her child fly for the North, and their adventures are told to the life.

Part of the negroes are taken further South. The dealer pursues the fugitives, but unsuccessfully. "Uncle Tom" is one of those led off to the far south, and then disposed of. Thus passes, and he becomes a Christian, endures all manner of abuse and in

VOLUME VIII.

DAILY SENTINEL.
BY TELEGRAPH.
DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL CONVENTION.
NEW YORK FOR CASS.

PRIVATE DISPATCH TO THE SENTINEL.

To R. King & Co., Milwaukee:

BALTIMORE, May 31.

The city is thronged with strangers. There is great excitement among all parties. The friends of Buchanan are working hard and manifest great determination to succeed.

They held a caucus this evening and resolved to stick to their favorite candidate to the last—has written a letter declaring in favor of Gen'l Cass, who he says is entitled to the nomination, and calls on his friends to vote for him.

Butler is out of the field so long as Cass is in it. It is now thought the friends of Cass will unite on Butler.

The Maryland delegations are strongly supported of an induction to go for Douglas on grounds of expediency. Things look as if Doug las, or Butler will be nominated. The great difficulty has not been settled as rumored, and Gov Johnson stands firm for Cass.

Mississippi is amply arrayed, and has 46 delegates who claim seats on the floor. John Davis of Louisiana and Co. John will be present at the Convention. The impression seems to be gaining that Gen. Cass and

Gen. Houston are urging his claims with great energy.

The New York delegates continue to arrive.

BALTIMORE, June 1, 12 M.

A proposition to exclude slaves and all delegates over the number each State is entitled to cause warm and exciting debate. No progress in business.

Two claimants to Georgia seats.

A resolution to allow each claimant to appear before the Committee on credentials and advocate his claims, was adopted.

Not half the delegates seated. Hundreds on the floor not entitled to seats. Virginia has 13 delegates, Mississippi 46; other states immense numbers.

Lord Wharncliffe appeared with Revendy Johnson on the stage.

10 o'clock, 20m.

A sharp debate going on against allowing supernumerary delegates to take their seats.

Some excitement in Convention from the N.Y. delegation appearing in front of the Hall with a banner inscribed "New York for Cass."

[The above is incoherent in some respects, owing to the constant interruption of the wild lightning.]

By Last Night's Mail.

New York, May 29.—9 P.M.

The Courier's mail received this A. M. do not confirm the Telegraphic dispatches from Halifax, that the Woollen Manufacturers are alarmed about the short supply of wool from Australia, but on the contrary, that a large quantity arriving quite recently will suffice to cover our wants, Australia's wool declined in price.

Mr. Grinnell's ship, the Advance, has left the Sectional Dock, and is now ready to sail. Mr. Grinnell has given us his assurance that his position of Sir John Franklin, provided Government will give him officers and men.

Mr. Peabody, the American banker now at London, has authorized Mr. Grinnell to draw on him for $10,000 if necessary, to start the expedition.

The Atlantic sailed at noon with 45 passengers, including Jenny Lind, Bishop De Lancy and Mrs. Crocker, Mrs. Webster, Dr. T. C. H. in American Gold, and $30,000 in English gold.

Jenny Lind was beautifully serenaded by the members of the Philadelphia Society, last evening.

New York, May 28.

The Atlantic sailed today. Six hundred and over 300 passengers, among whom Bishop De Lancy and Mr. Crocker, Jenny Lind and husband, Grace Greenwood and Charles Gould.

Frederick Meagher, who arrived in this city last night, states that he made his escape from Van Demans Land about the 1st of December, and proceeded indirectly to the coast of South America, and through the interior to Chagres, where he finally arrived directly to New York.

He came to make any statement as to the means of his escape.

Mengier was unable to accompany him in his flight, and his friend, Smith O'Brien, and John Michie, were in good health when he left.

Louisville, May 29.

A despatch from St. Louis announces that a destructive fire occurred in that city on Monday evening last, consuming property to the amount of $50,000.

ATLANTA, [Mo.] May 29.

The Whig Convention of the Constitutional District of Maine have nominated Honble Isaac Ward, of Waldoboro, as their candidate for Congress to fill the place of Chas. Andrews, deceased.

The convention also adopted resolutions in favor of Scott for President and Jones for Vice President.

WASHINGTON, May 29.

Senate not in session.

House—Mr. Hall reported a bill in favor of enabling the Legislature of Indiana to dispose of the unodd lands in Saline county.

Mr. Grinnell, who has been on the part of J. W. Marshall, asking for a grant of land for having discovered gold in California. Mr. Hall reported the Iowa Railroad bill as passed the Senate. Sunday was offered.

The gold land bill was then passed, by Yeas 103, Nays 52.

A combination is being formed to carry the land bills and tariff in the house. Cast prospect for the democratic nomination is brightening.

RICHMOND, May 29.

The Senate of this State has passed a bill establishing steamers between this City and Antwerp.

The Enquirer contains letters from Hon. Messrs. Cass, Douglass, King, Boyd, Houston, Dickinson, Lane, Ross, Dallas, Buchanan, Wool, Stockton and others.

They all express themselves strongly in favor of the Compromise. Comodore Stockton, Hon. R. King, Hon. Lynn Boyd, Hon. Ross, and others, that they were not candidates for the Presidency.

Washington, May 29.

A cause of the Iron masters of Pa. headed by Geo. Foster, and all the Buchanan men from Pa. has been held.

Propositions were agreed to for carrying all the Lawsuits now before the Courts of Common Pleas, and the present system of levying dues. This would increase the present tariff 25 per cent.

One of the New England members who had received a call to attend the caucus, spurned the proposition with indignation.

The appropriations in aid of the Collin steamer, have passed the Senate by a decisive majority.

Washington, May 29.

A loss for—Yesterday a fire was communicated to the wood pile belonging to the Atlantic and St. Lawrence railroad company, by the side of the track near Mechanic's Falls, which extended on each side of the track, a distance of three rods, and contained 2,000 cords of wood. It damaged the rails, rails, etc., so much, as to render the road impassable.

CHICAGO, [Ill.] May 29.—On Saturday afternoon last, a fire, which had been burning on India and North Side, was killed by John O'Neil, who was his nearest neighbor.

Some difficulty had existed between the two families, for several days, over the intended cause of the fire. Mr. O'Neil, who is a lawyer, and his wife, the widow of Mr. Bradly, a prominent citizen of Chicago, the little daughter of O'Neil's.

The circumstance was mentioned by the child to the mother, and by her communicated to the father, who, after consulting with his wife, mediated and secured a general truce.

Arming himself with a heavy club, he watched Bradly's exit from his house, and dealt him a blow which fractured his skull, and occasioned his death in a short time.—Chicago Tribune.

O'Neil was arrested day before yesterday, about 10 miles from Chicago.

STOCKBRIDGE.—By a letter from Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—A few articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on the 23d inst., a payment will be made to the Stockbridge nation of $10,500, of which the citizen party $3,000, and the other party $1,500, will be paid to the state of New York, in connection of some old claims which accrued while they were residents of that state.—Post de la Loire.

NEW YORK.—Among the articles sent over to Stockbridge we learn that on

VOLUME VIII.

MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL.

NEW SERIES.

DRY GOODS, &c.

J. C. GRIDLEY & CO.
STILL AHEAD!!

A big pile of Goods for a small pile of Money
LARGE! SPLENDID!
ASTONISHING!!

The supplies are to be weekly through the season, at
NO. 11 SPRING STREET,
THEIR OLD STAND!

THERE is no use in trying to sell them at a lower price than we can.
They are cheaper, & cheaper, than now.
The supplies come from the fact that it is the place to buy.

HONEST GOODS! STRONG GOODS!

Handsome, fast-colored, and substantial, fresh from the hands of the manufacturers of every part of the country. We have a large stock of Goods, and are always ready to supply any customer at a great sacrifice, and at their old stand.

Buying industry and long experience, enables us to offer the most extraordinary temptation in every kind of

DRY GOODS,

Silk, Satins, Dress Goods, Cambric, Broads, Cloth, Linen, Cheesecloth, Shirts, etc.

By the yard, bundle, box, car, load, or load.

At prices lower than any other house in the United States.

FAMILY GROCERIES.

Choice and well selected, selected after the best.

Low prices and entire satisfaction,

is our motto, and we invite all to drive down and see for themselves.

I. D. N. GRIDLEY & CO.

Oct. 13, 1851.

SPRING & SUMMER TRADE,

1852.

LUDINGTON & CO.,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL DEALERS IN

FANCY & STAPLE

DRY GOODS,

FAMILY GROCERIES,

Wines, Liquors, Secs,

AT THE OLD CORNER,

EAST WATER ST., MILWAUKEE.

We would especially announce, to our old customers, to the public generally, that we have made arrangements with the American General Agent of Merchants in Milwaukee, to receive all such arrangements to receive every vessel, using the name of

New and Fashionable Goods,

Direct from Boston and New York, and pledge ourselves to sell them at the very lowest possible price, and give our customers the best service.

We invite close examination, and guarantee not to be under-taxed by any one in the trade.

LUDINGTON & CO.

WONDERS WILL NEVER CEASE!

J. N. BONESTEEL'S

N E W

CHEAP CASH STORE!

The invention of the public has already been called to the attention of the BEST, BEAUTIFUL, LOW, SWELL PHOENIX BUILDING, which includes an apartment house occupied by the PHOENIX BUILDING, and the many wants of hundreds of customers, and is highly recommended.

Entirely New & Fashionable Cheap Goods, which from his long experience in the sale of his goods, to the great number of his constant customers, having a fast equal to his competitor's.

Quartermaster, Drapery, and Furniture, with every article of comfort and convenience, and the best quality.

Walt Known much-valued and never-to-be forgotten.

CHEAP CASH STORE

J. N. BONESTEEL'S

Corner of East Water and Michigan Streets, Milwaukee.

ANOTHER ARRIVAL

NEW AND ELEGANT

SPRING AND SUMMER

G O O D S ,

BRADFORD BROS.

50 Rich PARASOLS, new styles.

500000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

50 pieces new style Muslin de Jaine, Green, Blue, Red, new style.

50 boxes Long Slacks, Blue, Green, Red.

Complete assortment of Drapery and Inverning.

Draperies, Drapery Blanks, Ladies' Needlework and Domestic Linen Handkerchiefs.

Summer Slacks of every variety.

Every hour a large number of new and half-priced goods adapted to the wants of City and Country.

BRADFORD BROTHERS.

GREAT ARRIVAL

Spring and Summer

GOODS,

1852.

EXTRAORDINARY

Daily Increasing Attractions at

MACK'S

New York Cheap Cash Store.

Established in connection with one of the most extensive and elegant Dry Goods houses in the City of New York, for the purpose of establishing a similar business in the western country.

Mr. Mack's is a well known and prominent establishment, take this opportunity of informing their numerous friends that they have sold their entire business to the extent of their ability to do so.

They have sold their entire business to the extent of their ability to do so.

THEIR SPRING STOCK

Is beyond compare, the most extensive and varied in the western country, embracing every article used in the home, and every article of clothing.

Those who have not yet examined their stock or prices, they should do so.

To those who have not yet examined their stock or prices, they should do so.

Most SEASONABLE GOODS,

Best and Best Styles.

From the manufacturers and the largest auction sales in the city of New York.

At LEAST 25 PER CENT LESS, than those asked at other stores.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.

— all colors, very fast goods, in per yard, worth more

Martens, Linen Poplins, Muslin de Jaine, Linen, Blue, Red, Green, new style, so cheap that they are sold for a song.

Blue and Black of the best quality.

Cravats, Neckties, Handkerchiefs, and every article below their value.

Men's and Women's Bonnets.

1000000 new styles.

1000000 Umbrella Guards, Silk Fringed, Blue Gray, Green, new style.